AN ACT

TO EMPOWER THE PUERTO RICO PLANNING BOARD TO DETERMINE WHICH ARE THE BUILDINGS AND OTHER STRUCTURES OF HISTORIC VALUE IN PUERTO RICO; TO EMPOWER THE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR TO TAKE OVER THE CUSTODY AND ADMINISTRATION AND TO PRESERVE AND REPAIR SUCH BUILDINGS AND STRUCTURES; AND TO REPEAL ACT 35, 27 OF APRIL 23, 1930 AND SECTION 5 OF ACT NO. 75 OF APRIL 25, 1949.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Puerto Rico:

Section 1.—The Planning Board of Puerto Rico shall determine which are the buildings and other structures of historic value in Puerto Rico. The Board shall prepare and publish for general knowledge a list of such buildings and structures; Provided, that the provisions of Act No. 374, approved May 14, 1949, shall apply to the buildings and other structures of a private nature included in said list, as if such building or structure were located in an ancient or historic zone so established by the Planning Board.

Section 2.—The Department of the Interior shall have charge of the custody and administration of the buildings and other structures of historic value belonging to the Government of Puerto Rico or the municipalities. The Commissioner of the Interior may delegate to any agency or instrumentality of the Government of Puerto Rico or to the municipalities, the custody and administration of any building or structure of historic value, upon the previous acceptance of said agency, instrumentality or municipality.

The Commissioner of the Interior, or the organization to which he delegates, shall prescribe the rules they may deem advisable for the use of such buildings and structures.
Section 3.—The Department of the Interior shall have charge of the repair and maintenance of the buildings and other structures of historic value. In fulfilling these duties, the Planning Board may be consulted; Provided, that no substantial alteration of such buildings and structures may be made without the approval of the Board.

Section 4.—There is hereby transferred to the Department of the Interior, to be used in connection with the functions herein directed, the records, property and unexpended balances of appropriations, budgetary items, or other funds pertaining to the Board for the Preservation of Historical Relics, created by Act No. 27 of April 23, 1930. This provision shall not affect the transfers made by virtue of Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950.

Section 5.—Act No. 27 of April 23, 1930, and Section 5 of Act No. 75 of April 25, 1949, are hereby repealed.

Section 6.—This Act, being of an urgent and necessary character, shall take effect immediately after its approval.

Approved, March 2, 1951.
